

ReformsKool: Call for Authors and Editors!!

The Weekly Digest of the Health Care for All Campaign of the American Medical Student Association

Want to Work With the ReformsKool Team?

As Congress continues to debate health care reform, AMSA continues to have a strong voice in the debate. And now, we want to include YOUR voice... That's right, we're seeking contributing authors!

ReformsKool, AMSA's weekly digest of developments in health care reform for physicians-in-training by physicians-in-training, is available every Friday on www.amsa.org and on the Health Policy list-serve. Archives can be found at www.amsa.org/uhc/hcr.cfm.

Submission Guidelines:

- Submissions should address a current domestic or global health care reform issue.
- Submissions may be up to 500 words.
- E-Mail submissions to brd.1@amsa.org.

Editorial decisions will be made within 48 hours of receipt. No articles will be rejected outright. Articles will be: 1) accepted as written for that issue, 2) accepted as written for a later issue, 3) returned with edits, or 4) returned without edits with recommendation of major substantive change. We encourage resubmission of all returned manuscripts!

Possible Topics Include (but are certainly not limited to) analysis and/or discussion of:

- Biologics
- Primary Care Workforce Development
- Medical Education
- Student Action, Activism, and Advocacy
- HIV/AIDS and Other Infectious Diseases
- Health Disparities/Health Equity
- End of Life Care

- Immigrant Health
- Environmental Medicine/Preventive Care
- Single Payer
- The Public Option(s)
- Women's and Reproductive Health
- Medicaid Expansion
- Physician Sunshine Act/Conflict of Interest
- Fixing Medicare Part D

Not a writer but want to be involved? What skills do you have? Come be an editor! Help with layout! Gather videos or create your own multimedia tools! We're ALWAYS looking for creative folks to help improve AMSA's newest and most exciting publication!
