

Region X Conference Schedule
December 4-6, Portland Oregon
“And Justice for All”

Friday, December 4th

1-4pm:	Optional Leadership Institute at OHSU “Starting Up and Running a Free Clinic.” Facilitated by James Reuler, MD and Samira Godil, Jill Ginsberg MD, MPH
4pm:	Buses leave the Hilton and take drop off conference attendees at OHSU
5pm:	Keynote from Martin Donohoe, MD on Social Justice
5:45- 6:15pm:	CIR addresses conference attendees
6:15- 8:00pm:	Pizza and Beer sponsored by OHSU AMSA and CIR
8pm:	OMM social on the hill OR health policy/global health night on the town OR LGBT night on the town
10pm:	Buses take students still at OHSU back to Hilton

Saturday, December 5th

7am:	Buses leave Hilton for OHSU (attendees can take streetcar if they want to attend late)
8-9:45am:	Breakfast at OHSU and Regional Time
10-10:45am	Break-out sessions: Physicians as Advocates (history and future) with Robert Gluckman, MD; Stigma and HIV amongst Healthcare Trainees in East Africa with Dr. Honova Englander; Naturopathic Women’s Health with Kimberly Windstar, MEd, ND; No scalpel vasectomy workshop with Dr. Garvin; Trans Health Care with Dr. Sara Becker; Medical School Admissions Panel with admissions representatives from at least 3 medical schools
11:11:45 am	Break-out sessions: The Archimedes Movement with Dr. Liz Baxter, MD; Do it yourself: Creating International Health Experiences with Dr. Sarah Present; Patient Safety with Dan Henderson; Surgical Skills Workshop; Native Americans and Substance Abuse with Dr. Walker; International Exchanges for students (IFMSA) with Jim Curry, Premed Region 10 Director; Premed NORE Assistant, IFMSA
11am-3pm:	Exhibit Hall and Residency Fair with free prizes including Step One courses from Kaplan and USMLERx as well as signed books from Atul Gwande.
Noon- 12:45pm:	Keynote from Dr. Ted Epperly, the former president of the AAFP
3-3:45pm	Break-out sessions: Single Payer Health Care by JB Felix; Medical Choice in the International Setting with Dr. Theresa Gibson; Suffering and the Relief of Suffering – A patient’s perspective with Erik Fromme, MD; Lung Sounds workshop with Dr. Brett White; LGBTQ Youth with SMYRC and Bridge 13; Premed: The Long Road to Medical School: An Admissions Overview with Matt Stull, MS-4
4-4:45pm	Break-out sessions: Pharmaceuticals & Medical Research: Responsibility to patients in the US and abroad with Ethan Guillen; Global Health TBD (IFMSA/CIR?); Health

	Literacy with Clifford Coleman, MD; Acupuncture Workshop with Dr. Meg Hayes and Dr. Zhao Xue Lu; HIV/AIDS in minority populations with Dr. Doug Beers; Premed: The Devil's in the Details: The Medical School Personal Statement and Interview with Matt Stull, MS-4
5pm:	Buses leave OHSU for Hilton
8pm:	Conference attendees night out on Ptown: nonalcoholic event at the Naturopathic School and alcoholic events around town (including Winter Beer Festival)

Sunday, December 6th

Participants will take the streetcar from the Hilton to CHH on Sunday. We could possibly supply passes and will likely need volunteers at the Hilton to help guide the students there. The streetcar leaves every 15-20 minutes on Sundays.

8am:	Yoga at March Wellness
9-10am:	Breakfast at CHH
10-10:45am:	Politics & Evidence of Health Policy with Elizabeth Steiner, MD; Student/Administration Conflict Resolution Panel with med student panelists from OHSU, UW and U of Colorado; Introduction to Homeopathy by Will Taylor, MD; Splinting and Casting Lab; Intercultural Psychiatry with Dr. Kinzie
11-11:45am	Keynote by Dr. Kavita Patel
Noon	End of Conference