BECOME A DOCTOR

There are a number of steps you'll need to complete in order to become a doctor:

- Earn a bachelor's degree.
- Take the Medical College Admission Test.
- Enroll in medical school.
- Complete residency.
- Become licensed.

As a premedical student, you're preparing for the MCATs and the American Medical Student Association wants to help. AMSA members receive discounts on MCAT preparatory tools and training programs. The savings you earn as an AMSA member will exceed the cost to join as a member.
