
AMERICAN MEDICAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION
HOUSE OF DELEGATES 2016
RESOLUTION: C2

INTRODUCED BY:	Joshua Weinstock, Vice President for Internal Affairs; Deborah V. Hall MD, National President; Stefanie Smith, Premedical Trustee; Rita Kuwahara, Vice President for Leadership Development; Michael Sparks, International Trustee; Perry Tsai, Vice President for Programming Development; Kelly Thibert, National President-Elect
SCHOOL:	Cooper Medical School of Rowan University; University of Connecticut School of Medicine; University of Missouri; University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Medicine; Ross University School of Medicine; University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Medicine; Nova Southeastern University College of Osteopathic Medicine
SUBJECT:	Management Principles of The New Physician Magazine
TYPE:	Resolution of Internal Affairs

1 WHEREAS “special interest” is a vague term that may change over time, and be open to different interpretations;

2
3 WHEREAS the use of such unspecific terminology may contradict the magazine’s editorial mission “to pursue and
4 present news and issues of interest and importance to the readership and the organization in an unbiased manner through
5 objective research and reporting” (Section XIII, Line 8), and;

6
7 WHEREAS the American Medical Student Association must adhere to its Constitution, Bylaws and Internal Affairs
8 documents;

9
10 THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Internal Affairs Section XXIII shall be amended to strike Line 12:

11
12 ~~12. The magazine shall not be used by the organization and any subgroup of the organization or any group external to~~
13 ~~the organization for the purpose of pursuing or presenting, in any format, issues of special interest.~~

14
15
16 Fiscal note: None